

Bibolina Bistrot Table

Design by Julie Richoz

900 x Ø 700 mm

The Bibolina bistrot table emulates all the charm of tables that adorned Parisian cafés and bistros at the beginning of the 19th century. By revisiting the lines of this iconic object, Julie Richoz has created a contemporary and versatile piece that adapts to different contexts and realms thanks to its compact shape and play on contrasting colours and materials. This practical and serviceable product can be disassembled and delivered flat. The table top and base are made from solid oak; its stem can be in wood or painted metal.
