EKKO

Ekko is a sofa that senses, harmoniously bringing together people and the modern work environment. It complements the surrounding interior architecture through a clean-lined silhouette, aligning seamlessly with walls and division of space. Inside the sofa, sculpted curves naturally shadow the form of those sitting in it, following the human body and providing deep, plush comfort. The Ekko family is available in standard sofas and reconfigurable modular sofas. The internal frame is made from plywood, MDF and solid pine with nozag springs. The seat comprises of 40 Kg high density cold cured foam sat on black powder coated, cast aluminium legs.
