BOLLA / SIDE TABLE, Michael Sodeau

Family of small pouf-tables made entirely of woven wicker. It is characterised by a low and rounded shape with full volumes and a skilful play of workmanship, shapes and colours. This product stands out thanks to the beauty of the natural fibre weave combined with an original design, giving it character and uniqueness. Internal structure made of round iron bars stained with semi mat epoxy powders, handwoven with natural melange rattan core. White polyurethane feet.
